Homecoming's Kick Off Set for 8 P.M.

'New Look' Pervades School As Additions House Classes

"With almost 2400 students enrolled here this semester, Manual's increase in accommodations being well used," said Mr. Noble Poole, Vice-principal.

Besides adding a new floor to part of the building, other changes have been made throughout the entire school. The Business Education Department has been moved from the second floor to the new addition of the third floor.

The drafting rooms, previously on the first floor, are now on the second floor; and the printing room has been moved to the Shop Building. The old printing room is now the new science office. There are also two new science labs on the first floor.

The Music Department takes on new shape this year with the addition of a new orchestra room. Room 152, formerly the music theory room, has doubled in size, and the room is much cooler during warm weather because of the shaded portico outside its windows.

Manual now has a guidance and counseling room where counselors may arrange conferences with pupils.

"This room is an ideal location for counseling since it is centralized in one area and near the office records," commented Principal C. Edgar Stahl.

The room provides the quiet privacy so desirable for counseling and is open to students Periods 1-10.

"We believe this is important in establishing the right kind of relationship between the student and teacher," added Mr. Stahl.

Smile!

Frosh, Sophs, Juniors Sit For Ivian 'Pics'

Every underclassman will have his moment before the camera next Tuesday. Yes, Smile Day will be here Sept. 24. This is the day photographers set up on the auditorium stage for a round of taking pictures for the 1964 Ivian. Students will go to the auditorium from regular English classes to be "shot."

Picture packets will be sold in November at the "Pic Parade," a dance sponsored by the yearbook.

When you are dressing Tuesday morning, remember you are to have your picture taken. Look pretty, but don't wear white or eye-popping plaids or figures.

It's "on stage" for all underclass Manualites Tuesday.

Lots of Redskins!

Enrollment at Manual this year has zoomed to an all time high of 2,399.

As usual the freshman class is the largest with 702, including 182 returning 9A's and 520 new 9B's. There are 534 in the sophomore class; the juniors number 609; and there are 450 seniors.

Crowning of Royalty Climaxes Half-time Show

The crowning of King Manual XI and his Queen will highlight tonight's homecoming celebration during the half-time of the Howe-Manual game.

The King and Queen will be announced by Principal C. Edgar Stahl and crowned by last year's King and Queen, Phil Steele and Terri Stoneburner. The candidates for King are Bob Cummins, Steve Davis, Larry Markle, Jim Muir, and Jim Jewell. Karen Bertels, Jeanne Fletcher, Shrynn Johnson, Connie Mudd, and Denise Shockley are candidates for Queen. Mr. Carl Wright will be the master of ceremonies.

The half-time ceremonies will be led by the Redskin Marching Band under the direction of Mr. William D. Kleyla and Drum Major Diane Eickhoff. The band will form the Block M. Accompanying the band will be Chief Jerry Isaacs, Manual '59, riding his horse, Buck I.

A white carpet will be rolled out for the royalty by Freshman Football Players Steve Stuard and Steve Snoddy. Drivers of the cars that will bring the candidates and other participants to the field will be Thomas Smith, Roger Day, Frank Ogden, Ken Massey, Lynn Charnes, Dennis Sandefur, Gene Voelkel, and Denzil Throckmorton. "Freshman papooses" who act as crown bearers are Susan Phillips and Jerry Jordan.

Mr. Wendell Mertz will sing "Queen of Manual High" and "Girl of My Dreams," accompanied by the Girls Glee Club.

Tryout Monday For Talent Show

Are you talented? Do you dance, sing, or make people laugh? Whatever your talent may be, whether it's vocal or comic, it can be used in the Tee Pee Talent Parade which will be presented as an Auditorium next Friday, Sept. 27. One of the main purposes of the program is to show prospective writers of Redskin Revue acts the talent which is available for their use.

"Everyone who is capable of any sort of entertainment is more than welcome to try out after school Monday and Tuesday of next week in the auditorium," encouraged Mr. Fred Bennett, director.

"People with unusual acts," remarked Mr. Bennett, "are especially urged to audition."

panied by the Girls Glee Club.

Ten-year and fifty-year letterman have been issued a special invitation and will be introduced by Principal Stahl.

ROTC Sponsors To Usher Grads

New ROTC sponsors will wear their uniforms for the first time at Homecoming tonight. They will usher guest 10-year and 50-year lettermen to special seats along the sideline.

The new sponsors are Donna Jones, Vaida Mikits, Phyllis Alstott, Vicki Weaver, Carol Schilling, Denise Shockley, Linda Andry, and Barbara MacKinnan. Alternates are Nancy McDonnell and Madeline Watts.

As has been the custom, the senior girls who applied introduced themselves to all ROTC classes before selection and were chosen Sept. 12 by popular vote of the entire cadet corps.

Pretty Soft!

Buy Pillowed-Comfort From Cheerleaders

New skirts are the goal of the cheerleaders as they sell Manual stadium pillows.

For the first game, Manual vs. Sacred Heart, Mrs. Thelma Morgan, director of activities, had ordered 200 pillows and the girls sold every one to Manual band members and enthusiastic fans.

"Sitting on a red and white Manual pillow surely beats a seat on the hard, bare bleacher," said Drum Major Diane Eickhoff, enthusiastically. "We highly recommend the new stadium pillows."

More pillows have arrived for the homecoming game tonight for those who would like to sit "pretty."

The cheerleaders are also selling "Manual Redskin" car stickers. Decorate your car with a big 5 cents' worth. These are also available in the Booster Office.

Senior Class Acquires Thai

Apon Chantravitune is presently attending Manual as an exchange student from Bangkok, Thailand.

Participating in the Winter Program of the American Field Service, Apon was selected on the basis of interviews and an autobiography. Junior Susan Huppert and her family are Apon's host family during her one year visit here.

She is a member of the Senior Class at Manual although she graduated from the Triam Udam Suksa School in Bangkok and will return in the fall next year for university studies.

Faculty and Student Body Welcome 22 New Teachers

Of the 543 new "freshmen" at Manual, twenty-two are teachers. The office also acquired a new face, and two teachers returned from leaves-of-absence.

The eight new members of the English Department are Miss Toni Sue Ax, Mrs. Judith Banks, Miss Athena Chochos, Mr. Arthur Cook, Miss Carolyn Griffin, Mrs. Barbara Hoeltke, Mrs. Maxine Kaleb, and Mr. Richard Whitworth.

Miss Ax, a Butler University graduate, received her M.A. degree from Harvard University. She is presently teaching Spanish and English.

A Purdue graduate, Mrs. Banks teaches English and Home Economics. She previously taught science at School 26.

Miss Chochos previously taught at Huntington and Marion Junior

Highs. Besides teaching speech, she teaches art. She graduated from Indiana University and is working on her M.A. degree at Michigan State University.

A Butler University graduate, Mr. Cook is working on his M.A. degree at Indiana University. He taught for ten years at the Moral-Triton Consolidated School and is presently teaching English and developmental reading.

A former Broad Ripple High School teacher, Mrs. Hoeltke is an Indiana University graduate. Besides teaching English, she is assistant director of publications.

A Franklin College graduate, Miss Griffin previously taught at Lafayette Jefferson High School. She received her M.A. degree from Indiana University.

Mrs. Kaleb, a '60 Indiana University graduate, taught for two years at Northwood Junior High in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

An Indiana University graduate, Mr. Whitworth has taught for five years at School 34. He received his M.A. degree from Indiana State College.

New to the Language Department is Mr. Albert Steiner. He has previously taught at Little Flower Parochial School and is a graduate of St. Mienard College.

Mr. Maurice Huckleberry and Mr. Nathan Scheib are new to the Social Studies and Orientation. Mr. Huckleberry has taught at Speedway and Westfield High Schools. He received his M.A. degree from Indiana University and is presently a Junior class sponsor.

A '58 Manual graduate, Mr. Scheib graduated from Indiana Central College and received his M.A. degree from Butler University. Last year, he substituted throughout the Indianapolis Public Schools. He is 9A guidance counselor.

Returning from a leave-of-absence is Mr. Louis Parnell to the Social Studies Department. He was an exchange teacher last year in Perth, Scotland.

Newcomers to the Math Department are Mr. Billy Draffen and Mrs. Viola Ramsey. Mr. Draffen, a Purdue University graduate, teaches algebra and physical science. He has just completed four and a half years in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Ramsey has received her M.A. degree from Purdue University.

Mr. Milton Bass and Mr. Raymond Schultz are new to the Science Department. A Hanover

Does He Own a Rubber Swan?

Soon many responsible Manual students will be hurrying to the polls for class elections. Naturally this has the typical, conscientious Manualite in a state of intense mental anxiety. Voting, he realizes, is a great responsibility and he wants to give it all he's got. For the benefit of those who are voting for the first time and of those old hands who think they need a refresher, here is a basic guide for determining choices for officers.

1. Know the qualifications of the candidate; for instance, does he wear tapered Madras shirts, or plan to attend Harvard?
2. Know his social habits, will he set a proper example for the class and school? Consider such things as, does he use the right hair tonic, have a Bostonese accent, or build models of PT boats?
3. Does he own a rubber swan?
4. Does he carry an attache case, a briefcase, or just a plain notebook.
5. Is he going steady with one of the other candidates?
6. If he is, and you are going to vote for her, vote for him. If she is a good candidate, why isn't he?
7. If after considering the preceding points you must still make a choice between two or more of the candidates, and here we get serious, consider whether or not he is responsible enough for the job.

Most of these rules are just in fun. Stand up staunchly and vote for the best. After all, the purpose of high school is to prepare us for the adult world; so why not face elections in an adult manner?

Sing Out as Band Strikes Up

Our school song, "Onward Manual," dates back to 1911, when it was written by graduate Wallace Wadsworth, to the tune of "On Wisconsin." Sing out these words to support the team and welcome the old grads at the game tonight.

Onward Manual, on forever,
Always to success;
Let your banner never waver,
Failure ne'er confess;
Rah-Rah-Rah
Onward Manual, ever onward,
Make a glorious name;
Strive upward, strive and
Gain an envied fame.

Here are some other interesting facts that all Manualites should know about their school. Our school colors, red and white, were chosen with red signifying valor and patriotism, and white signifying purity, cleanliness of soul, and clean sports. Our school slogan is "We Can, We Must, We Will," and our code is "Ever Manly, True, Honest, and Sincere."

Remember these things in the classroom and at the game tonight and try to live up to their standards.

'Buy Tickets Here'—Heed Old Story

Let's support OUR school! We go to the game to support our team—let's support our school by buying our game tickets at the Bookstore. Manual's Athletic Department needs our money as much as the teams need our cheers. Let's go all-out for Manual!

Russians Chew, Too

Mrs. Black Lifts 'Iron Curtain,' Sneaks Peek at Russian People

"If you know more about the other fellow, you can better understand yourself," explained Mrs. Coral Black, Manual social studies teacher.

This summer Mrs. Black and thirty-one other teachers including her husband, Mr. Robert Black, teacher at Shortridge, spent six weeks in the Balkan countries and Russia.

They assembled in New York and from there flew to Athens, Greece. From Athens they sailed to Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia.

She visited these cities in Communist countries: Belgrade, Yugoslavia; Sofia, Bulgaria; Bucharest, Romania; and Budapest, Hungary. The party then went to Vienna, Austria; Prague, Czechoslovakia; Warsaw, Poland, and in Russia—Moscow, Yalta, Odessa, Kiev, and Leningrad. From the air, the teachers were also able to see the Scandinavian countries—Sweden, Finland, and Denmark.

Unhappy Hungarians

In the Balkans, the people of Hungary and Bulgaria seemed to Mrs. Black to be very unhappy. She felt that the people of Yugoslavia and Poland seemed to be more free than those of the other countries she visited.

They spent twelve days in Russia, seeing how the country looked and worked. Russia has progressed rapidly since the war, said Mrs. Black. The ideas of the people of Russia are very much like ours. The guides for the tour were college girls who emphasized that they, as we do, want peace.

The American teachers had an interview with two Russian teachers in Moscow. In the Russian schools, if a student is not doing what he is capable of doing, he is brought before a trade union, which is very forceful. The student had better return to work. This policy also applies to teachers.

The American teachers, who were from twenty different states, visited the American Embassies in Budapest, Warsaw, and Moscow. In Leningrad, they visited the Winter Palace, which has been turned into a museum with a magnificent art collection.

Few Souvenirs

Touring in Russia brought one surprise: there were no or very few souvenirs to be purchased. One of the problems Mrs. Black had was trying to change American money into Russian money. There were only certain days and certain times of the day when this could be done.

In Russia the children asked for chewing gum, and the teenage boys asked for ball point pens.

Russia's streets were occupied by streetcars, buses, and a few taxis. There were few automobiles, for only the very wealthy persons, and those such as Premier Khrushchev, own cars.

What a wonderful world this would be if we all did as well today as we expect to do tomorrow.

'We Can, We Must, We Will'

'Skipper' Gave Manual Motto

By Nancy Bentz

Manual's "Skipper" is gone. Mr. E. H. Kemper McComb died in Bartholomew County Hospital in Columbus, Indiana, Aug. 2.

Mr. McComb was principal of Manual for 32 years, having retired in 1947. He came to Manual in 1905 as head of the English department and later began his principalship in 1916. His accomplishments for Manual are many; he originated the Top Ten honor system and the John H. Holliday memorial scholarship. He acquired the Delavan Smith Athletic field and contributed greatly to the development of the Alumni Association.

Many other achievements are attributed to Mr. McComb. He was president of the North Central Association of Teachers in 1937. He had been president of the NCTE, and was a member of the National Education Association and the Indiana State Teachers Association. He was the first Red Cross chairman in the city. This is what Mr. McComb did, but more important is what he was.

Mrs. Mary J. Spiegel, secretary of Mr. McComb the 32 years that he was principal, remembers him in this way. "I couldn't have had a better friend than Mr. McComb." She continued, "If he believed in something, he went after it and proved to others that he was right. He often said 'If it's worth going after, you have to go after it yourself.'"

He was very firm in his convictions, but was the first man in the world to say "I'm sorry."

"No Bad Boys," Said Skipper

She continued, "He always said there was never a bad boy. He was very sympathetic with young people in trouble."

"He was firm and blunt in his talk so that people often thought he was angry—but he really wasn't. He was a brilliant man to the end."

Mrs. Coral Black had Mr. McComb as an English teacher when she was in high school. "He was a very fine English teacher. He inspired us and gave us a desire to want to read and learn more about poetry and prose."

Later, when Mrs. Black returned to Manual to teach history, Mr. McComb was principal. "His whole purpose in life was Manual. Forty-eight years of his life were devoted to this school. He gave us our motto, 'We Can, We Must, We Will' and said it often when addressing the student body, his black eyes sparkling with enthusiasm."

Mrs. Vivian Siener said that she remembers well his deep and sincere love for teachers and students at Manual. She added that he was an outstanding scholar and insisted upon a fine quality of work.

Dean of Principals

"He was considered the dean of principals and was looked upon almost reverently. He had a deep and abiding loyalty for everyone at Manual. He had a personal touch and interest in people."

Miss Freda Hart commented, "He was always a very good friend, and if anything happened that we teachers needed him, he would fight for us to the last inch. His interest was in every department." She added, "The qualities I remember him most for were his sympathy, his gruffness, and his loyalty."

Mr. Harry Painter expressed his admiration for Mr. McComb in this way: "I admired him because he was loyal to his teaching staff, because he was a fair administrator, because he was a well-educated man, because he contributed to the field of secondary education, and because he was very active in Jr. Red Cross."

He Was A Gentleman

Mr. Harold Boese explained another remembrance of Mr. McComb, "Mr. McComb was a gentleman and expected all others to be gentlemen. He wouldn't let others influence him in coming to a decision."

The death of Mr. McComb was the end of an era at Manual. But he, and what he did for Manual, will long be remembered in the hearts of Manual students, parents, teachers, and friends.

Redskins Face Howe's Hornets for Tonight's Big Game

Gridders Lose Openers In Spite of Good Play

Too many thirteens meant bad luck to Manual's gridiron Redskins in the opening games of the '63 schedule, as the team dropped its first two contests. Washington and Sacred Heart handled the setbacks, posting 13-6 and 13-12 scores, respectively, although the tribe showed some strong points in each tilt.

The Redmen dominated the Washington tilt, but two long-range tosses by Eddie Bopp made up the difference. He tossed to Charlie Rowland for 56 yards in the opening period, and a game-deciding 36-yarder to Gary Sylvester in the third stanza.

Long-range plays decided the Sacred Heart contest also, as the winning TD was accounted for on the first play of the game by Jim Beeson with a nifty 69-yard jaunt around end. The PAT by Charles Lauck eventually was the winning margin, after John Bau-man handled a TD pass from Joe McMullin.

On the Redskin side, Jerry Lewis stood out with his hard-hitting attack at fullback. From that spot, he has tallied all three Manual TD's and led in rushing by a single margin. In both games the Redmen led the struggle in statistics, and a few breaks could have made a big difference.

The big homecoming game tonight with Howe should be a good tilt. With first-of-the-season kinks worked out, it should be a good crowd pleaser.

Harold Brown Runs First In Cross-Country Tri-Meet

Manual's Harriers ground into action last Friday as they captured a second place in the first meet of the season.

The varsity squad was sandwiched between North Central and Broad Ripple with 23 points and Broad Ripple tallied 79 to finish third. Harold Brown won the meet easily for Manual as he sizzled the course with a time of 10:10. His time is only 2 1/2 seconds off the course record of 10:07.5 set in 1961 by Leon Carter.

Robert Brown, Harold's freshman brother, placed fourth in the meet and second for Manual with a 10:40 clocking. The other three places for Manual were Merrell Owen, Darrell Owen, and Larry Johnson with 11th, 15th, and 18th places, respectively.

The Manual Reserves ended up exactly the way the varsity did with North Central on top with 29, Manual second with 37, and Broad Ripple last with 61. Tom Roberts of Manual finished first with a time of 11:06.

The 1963 Cross Country schedule is as follows:

Sept. 20	Washington Invitational
28	Southport Invitational
Oct. 1	Howe Invitational
8	City Meet	HERE
10	Cathedral
12	Shortridge Invitational	HERE
15	Warren Central
18	Sectional
22	Freshman, Reserve City Meet

Freshmen Win First Game

The Freshman football squad began its season Sept. 5 with a 14-13 win against the Rockets of Broad Ripple. Mr. Pike's charges were whipped by Washington's Frosh in a tight 13-6 struggle Sept. 12.

The Ripple game was highlighted by two touchdowns by Joe Norris. Norris carried a punt thirty yards for the first TD and ran twenty yards for the second one. Steve Stuard scored the lone Redskin tally in the Continental game.

The Freshmen games to be played are as follows:

Sept. 19—Howe	.....Here
Sept. 26—Cathedral	.....Here
Oct. 3—Shortridge	.....Here
Oct. 10—Tech	.....There
Oct. 17—Broad Riple	.....There

Scoutin' the 'Skins

Bookstore Tickets Fill Manual Coffers

"Buy your tickets in the Bookstore and leave your money at Manual." These well-chosen words come over the PA several times each week to Home-Room-Roosted Manualites from Vice-principal Franklin Fisher. It seems, though, that Redskins are either partially deaf, or have no idea of where or what the Bookstore is. This is unfortunate; for tickets purchased there offer their full assistance to the Manual Athletic Department. This money helps finance Manual athletic squads, athletic awards, and any athletic equipment needed. The remaining greenbacks will buy Manual-needed teaching aids.

Next time you hear Mr. Fisher say, "Buy your tickets in our Bookstore," remember you're doing Manual and yourself a favor, if you follow his request.

We have a Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra among us. Seniors Mike Liggett and Denzil Throckmorton each played slugger rolls last spring and were rewarded with berths on the Indianapolis TIMES All-City baseball squad. June-grad Mike Shea was named second team pitcher on the "dream team."

Liggett was given the nod as the first team right fielder and Denzil was named first string catcher. Each had two home runs last spring. Mike led the 'Skins with a .400 batting average and three triples to his credit.

Reserve Team Tops Two Foes

The Manual reserve pigskin squad started its season with two impressive victories. The B's downed Washington 22-6 and squeaked out a 7-6 tilt with Sacred Heart. Mr. Jack Johns is coach again and he thinks he has a real hard-working squad.

For the first time, a new scheduling system for reserve games is being used. The team will follow the same schedule as the varsity does, only playing on Thursday. This leaves Howe, Cathedral, Shortridge, Tech, Broad Ripple, Southport, and Wood remaining for the rest of the season.

5,000 Fans to See Gala Halftime Festival

Howe's Hornets come a-buzzing into Delavan Smith Field as tonight's Homecoming guests fresh from their 6-6 tie with Crispus Attucks. More than 5,000 Manualites, grads, and fans are expected to see the football clash and Halftime Show—the parade and the crowning of King and Queen Manual XI. Redskin followers hope to repeat their 1962 success against the Hornets and put another dent in the Howe 1963 armor. Howe was smashed in the season opener by Tech, 47-0.

Coach Lew Mathieson's charges are led by Larry Bishop, sophomore signal-caller, and 230-pound center Scott Kleine. Scott stands 6-2 and is built like a block wall. Bishop is the sparkplug who engineered the 83-yard touchdown drive against Attucks.

Howe has ten lettermen back in the fold this year but is still young and learning. Ron Bowling, a 205-pound senior, and Bill Greaver man the tackle positions. Stan Bradley and Bruce Wenzler return at guard. Howe is blessed with Mike Albright, Ray Pier, and Steve Day at end.

The Redmen are on the rebound from two losses that were suffered because of a total of 7 points — the 13-12 Sacred Heart mishap, and the 13-6 setback by Washington. As the middle line held, pass defense was leaky against the Continentals. But bright spots glowed at the halfback slots with Mike Kratoska and Richie Cooper grinding out valuable yardage. Fullback Jerry Lewis earned another pat-on-the-back for another tilt of bulling through opposition.

Fish Fry Attracts Numerous Diners

"A large number of Manualites and their parents attended our Fish Fry this year," said Dads Club president Mr. Martin Baron.

Principal C. Edgar Stahl, serving as chief chef, fried 120 pounds of fish. Mr. J. Ray Johnson presided over the check out stations.

Sgt. Jack Nunnery provided ROTC cadets for table-clearing detail.

Manualites Work, Play At Summer Conferences

Summer institutes and camps from Lake Geneva, Wisc., to the I.U. campus attracted 27 Manualites during summer vacation.

JoNell Rugenstein, Bev Porter, Becky Pearce, Donna Berry, and Marilyn Sue Byers attended Girls State, June 23-30.

Around the Halls

Roiness Elects

The Roiness has named its officers for the first half of the year. They are Robert Humes, president; Gene Voelkel, vice-president; Roger Day, secretary; Jerry Dunn, treasurer; and Steve Davis, program chairman. They were elected at an August meeting at the home of Mr. Charles Monroe, this year's Roiness sponsor. Mr. Monroe was a member of this organization when he was a Manual student.

Robert Humes

Tap dancing ten years paid off when Tom Baxter, a junior, won first place in the Indianapolis Star and Park Department's Amateur Talent Contest this summer. He won by competing in the Division I, Class A group.

Stephen T. Sudler, a '62 grad, has been accepted at the University of Oklahoma for appointment as Midshipman in the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Steve, along with 20,000 other Americans, took part in the Navy College aptitude test in December. After he completes his training, he will be appointed to a commissioned rank in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps.

Through the campaigning and organizing of their parties, JoNell and Beverly were elected Senators. Becky Pearce was chosen State Representative.

A visit from Governor Matthew Welsh and Senator Birch Bayh was a highlight of the stay at Indiana University.

Attending Boys State June 15-22 were Mike Rogers, Gene Voelkel, Ron Drahos, Roger Day, Steve Davis, and Jim Muir. Bob Humes was elected Senator.

The newspaper division of the Indiana High School Journalism Institute drew Nancy Bentz and Julie Schultz; the yearbook division, JoNell Rugenstein, Linda Wilson, Dennis Raesner, and Bob LaFara.

Bob Bauer, Robbie Olds, Lynn Barnett, Bev Porter, Jeanne Fletcher, Fran Coffey, and Jeanne Reuter gathered at the Lake Geneva cheerleading camp. Having their picture taken for a national magazine climaxed the summer for Manual varsity cheerleaders.

Manual students again participated in this year's annual 9B Auditorium Program on the opening day of school. Lucia Verdouw provided the organ music while Steve Davis, Jerry Dunn, and Rodney Iverson sang as a trio. A talk by Bob Humes gave the new freshmen an insight into their next four years and acquainted them with the opportunities at Manual.

Faculty Welcome

College graduate, Mr. Bass received his M.A. degree from Purdue University.

A '59 Manual graduate, Mr. Schultz also graduated from Purdue University. He teaches biology and is freshman football coach.

Mr. Ed Wall returned from a leave-of-absence to be head of the Science Department. Last year he attended Harvard University and received his M.A. degree.

Newcomers to the Business Education Department are Mrs. Ruth Klopp, Miss Patsy Ramer, and Mr. Clifford Snyder. Mrs. Klopp and Miss Ramer are starting their first year of teaching. Mrs. Klopp is an Indiana University graduate. A Ball State Teachers College graduate, Miss Ramer is the sister of Miss Ellen Ramer, a member of the Home Economics Department.

Mr. Snyder received his M.A. degree from Indiana State College and taught at Peru, Indiana.

New to the Industrial Arts Department are Mr. Paul Brooks, Mr. John Easley, and Mr. David Ridge. Mr. Brooks attended Kansas University, received both his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Kansas State Teachers College. He taught for five years at Cordin, Indiana; two years in LaPorte, Indiana; and last year at School 60.

Mr. Easley and Mr. Ridge are both starting their first year of teaching, and both graduated from Indiana State College. Mr. Easley did his student teaching last year at Manual with Mr. Marvin Thorne.

A '56 Manual graduate, Mr. Thomas Dick is new to the Music Department. He is a graduate of Jordan College of Music, Butler University, and is directing the orchestra.

Mrs. Frances Hill, a graduate of Manual, is the new clerk in the office.

Evening Classes Offer Adults Chance to Advance Education

Adult Evening Classes will begin Monday, Sept. 30, from 7:00 to 9:30 P.M., and will continue for 10 sessions.

ABC Stenograph, Architectural Draft and Blue Print Reading, Art, Bookkeeping, Clothing, Current Affairs, Developmental Reading, French Conversation, and Home Decoration will be offered.

Other subjects available are Machine Calculation, Machine Drafting and Blue Print Reading, Machine Shop, Shorthand Review, Spanish Conversation Typing, Woodworking, General Metals and Welding, and Securities and Investing will be available. Classes are open to anyone interested in furthering his education in any of these areas.

All subjects are on a non-credit basis. Tuition fees for all classes are $13, with the exception of General Metals and Welding, and Securities and Investing which are $25 and $2 respectively.

"Other courses of an educational nature will be added if there are 11 or more enrollees," stated Mr. Owen Johnson, Director.

Fashion Wise
BETTY DRAKE
Insists on Adler Wool Socks

Betty States:

"For that sharp smart 'Kicky' look,
I wear Adler S.C. Wool Socks."

Those clean white
Adlers

We all remember you. You're the one who jumped off the high dive in a hoop skirt. Wearing Adler socks. And now people are flying into the pool from every direction in "clean white Adlers". If you're last in the shuffle you can only blame it on yourself and your white Adler SC socks.
