Alums to Celebrate Manual's Birthday

'Dame Manual' — Manualites remember Mrs. Mary Spiegel at work in the school office. Secretary to the Manual principals for years, she is the 1964 "Alumna of the Year."

Dinner, Class Reunions, Entertainment Await Former Redskins Tomorrow Night

Members from classes 1895 through 1963 will attend the celebration of Manual's 69th birthday tonight at the Annual Birthday-Dinner Reunion.

Dinner, which will be served from 5:30 to 7 P.M., will precede the assemblage of alums in various rooms throughout the building for each class reunion.

Members of the 1914 graduating class celebrate their 50th anniversary, and members of the January and June 1939 classes celebrate their 25th anniversary.

Entertainment will begin at 8 P.M. in the Auditorium. Representative acts from the 1964 Redskin Revue will perform.

Election of the 1964-65 officers of the Alumni Association will take place during the evening, and new officers will be announced during the auditorium program.

Mr. C. Edgar Stahl, principal, will present the Alumnus of the Year 1964 Award to Mrs. Mary Spiegel in the auditorium program also.

Following the auditorium program there will be a reception in the Cafeteria from 10 to 11 P.M.

"Many graduates make plans to vacation in Indianapolis in order to attend. Charles R. Steward, a 1904 graduate of Manual, is planning to attend the affair again. It will be his 60th attendance," reports Miss Marian White, publicity chairman.

Plans for tomorrow night were completed by the Executive Board of the Alumni Association. The current officers of the Association are as follows: Mr. Louis A. Weiland, president; Mr. Chet Miller, vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy Monroe, secretary; Mr. Norman Wilson, treasurer, and Mrs. Mary Spiegel, registrar.

The Executive Board members are Mr. Roy Anderson, Mr. Jack Kord, Mrs. Elsa Williams, Mr. Charles Menges, Mrs. Violet Hauser, Mr. Charles Monroe, Mr. Karl Erath, Mr. Ed Rugenstein, Mr. C. S. Ober, Mrs. Thelma Brink, Mrs. Marie Williams, Mrs. Floreine Boyd, Miss Edna Kritsch, Mr. William Rathert, Mr. Sam Short, Jr., Miss Julia Emhardt, and Miss Marian White.

Mr. Williams, Former Teacher, Authors Books

The books of Mr. A. Ross Williams, Manual teacher for more than twenty-five years, are "an excellent contribution to the better understanding of man and our society," stated Mr. Roland Hawkins, head of Manual's Social Studies department.

His first book, The Alphabet of Daily Living, says Mr. Hawkins, "Is an excellent series of essays that reveal a deep, rich philosophy of life."

"His latest book, An Autobiography of An Average Man, captures the sight and sound of the past in a meaningful way."

Myrtie Barker, a columnist for the Indianapolis News, commented, "In amazing sequence, his various experiences, like building blocks, go to make up the structure of his career. And even a disaster has its important place. For if Williams' house had not burned down, he might not have ever turned to teaching school—for with all possessions destroyed and little insurance, the family needed to 'recoup' some of its financial loss. That is when Williams thought of getting a teaching job. This position led to another and another. Indeed, for more than a quarter of a century, he was on the teaching staff of Manual High School, eventually becoming head of the social studies department."

3 Manualites Win Gold Keys

Four Manual students received awards in the Scholastic Art Contest sponsored in Indianapolis by L. S. Ayres and The Indianapolis Star.

Chuck Williams won a gold key for his photography entry, and Bob LaFara won an honorable mention certificate. Jim Patterson and Ronald Barnes won gold keys for their entries of opaque water color.

Accompanied by Mrs. Jane Gable, Publications Director, and Mr. Robert Crawford, art teacher, the students received their awards at a showing of their works in the Ayres Auditorium, Monday, Feb. 17, at 2 P.M.

All winning entries will be on display in the Ayres Auditorium from Feb. 18 through Feb. 29.

Alumni Honor Mrs. Spiegel Tonight

The 50-Year Club will honor Mrs. Mary Spiegel, Alumna of the Year, tonight at a reception at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Other guests who will be honored are members of the 1914 graduating class and Mr. Ralph Earl Spiegel, husband of the guest of honor.

The 50-Year Club was organized three years ago as a result of strong interest of the alumni who had been Manual graduates 50 years or more. President of the 50-Year Club is Mr. Roy E. McCoy; Vice-President is Mr. Edward Madinger; and Mrs. Dorothy Kuhns is Secretary-Treasurer.

Members of the 1914 graduating class celebrate their 50th anniversary tonight. Current officers are Mr. Byron D. Bowers, president; Mrs. Karl Erath, vice-president; Miss Helen Green, secretary; and Mr. John Cady, treasurer.

Alumna of the year 1964, Mrs. Spiegel was graduated in the 1910 class. After her graduation, she studied two years at the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music and then worked for a while at Eli Lilly and Co. in 1915 Mrs. Spiegel became secretary to the principal of Manual and served as "right hand man" to five principals.

This is the third year that the Alumnus of the Year award has been given. Mr. Louis J. Borinstein was the recipient in 1963 and Mr. Roy Howard received the award in 1962.

An 1899 Manual graduate, Mr. Borinstein was for many years a leader of the Jewish Welfare, B'Nai B'rith, a board member at an orphans' home at Cleveland and of the National Jewish Hospital at Denver.

Mr. Howard of Scrips-Howard newspapers was 1962 Alumnus of the Year. A nationally known figure in the journalism world, he was a 1901 Manual graduate.

Trees to Flower For Cherry Hop

Cherry blossoms will bloom again at the "Cherry Tree Hop," the annual turnabout dance sponsored by the Glee Club.

Barbara Stellhorn and Bev Porter, co-chairmen of the decorations committee, have visions of pink and white kleenex "cherry blossoms," miniature cherry trees covered with gum-drop cherries, roses, and candles. "Martha" and "George" will be crowned at the March 7 dance and will release clouds of balloons through the Cafeteria after their coronation.

Soon Glee Club members will be wearing small hatchets which will designate them as having tickets for sale.

Ivian Campaign for 9B's Starts March 2; Editor Reports Yearbook Program Good

The Ivian campaign for January 9B's will begin March 2. Home Room agents for these new pupils will be selling the yearbook at the special $2 price.

Each fall the Ivian campaign urges students to order their yearbooks early, since covers must be ordered by December. Then the staff estimates the number of 9B's who will be purchasing Ivians and orders covers for these pupils also. After the deadline for the campaign, the price rises from $2 to $3 to cover any additional costs.

"I'm really pleased with this year's cover," commented Ivian Editor JoNell Rugenstein, the cover was designed by Jim Patterson, art editor for the yearbook. Jim won a Gold Key in the Scholastic Art Contest.

Chuck Williams, one of the Ivian photographers, also won a Gold Key in the Scholastic Photography Contest. Chuck's winning photograph will be used as a full-page divider in the Ivian. Bob LaFara also won an honorable mention on a division page photo he took.

The progress of the Ivian has been strong and steady. All underclass pictures have been organized. Much copy is written. In fact, the book is completed, through Page 23.

"We're working pretty hard on the activities section right now," said JoNell. "Pictures keep rolling in, and we have to keep identifying, cropping, and making layouts for them," she added.

Another staff member, Linda Wilson, when asked about the Ivian, enthusiastically said, "It's great! Manualites are in for a big surprise in this year's Ivian."

Again, the Ivian will be the large 9- by 12-inch size. Eight pages have been added to the book because of increased enrollment.

IBM ADDS 13 To Honor Roll

Thirteen was an unlucky number for the IBM machine that tabulated the semester's end honor roll. It stopped before the end of the Home Room list, and thirteen Redskins were omitted.

Marlene Witt scored 40 honor points to head the additions to the honor roll. Thirty-five points went to Debbie Barkhau, Rick Foster, Winona Westbrook, and Susan Williams; 34, Martha Ann Westerfield; 32, Kathryn Campbell and Martha Taylor; 31, Phyllis Christy, Xantippi Stanley, and Marcia Sublett; and 30, Patricia Cox and Linda Ellis.

"This is really going to be one of the best Ivians of them all," said JoNell. "It's the largest, and it's well organized. If things keep rolling along as they have been, we will certainly be done in time for the John Henry Hop, which is scheduled for May 28."

Warpath!

'Skins Fire Up For Sectional

Redskins will fire up their basketball quintet for the climax of the season in an all-school pep session today.

The team will be introduced, and Mr. Harry Thomas, Director of Athletics, will give Manualites instructions for the Sectional tournament.

"We're out to give them a real boost!" said Mrs. Thelma Morgan, sponsor of the Pep Club.

Alums!

Quill, Scroll Sells Yearbooks for You

Alums! Have you lost the yearbook from your class? Check in Room 140 to see if a copy is available.

Members of Quill and Scroll will sell Senior Boosters, one of the titles of the past yearbooks, and Ivians, the name of Manual's yearbook since 1949, in the Publications office from 5:30 until 8 P.M. Saturday night.

Some of you "old Manual" Redskins might like a yearbook published since the move to the new building. A number of these will be available at the regular $2 price and contain many interesting pictures of the new building and its facilities.

Common Love Binds Us All

Manual's family dates back to 1895 when the first Senior class received their diplomas. The Alumni Association has brought together these Manual grads into one Redskin family.

We, the students of Manual, wish to welcome these loyal supporters of our school and invite them to visit the new extension of the third floor and our library of which we are very proud. We are grateful to you, the Alumni, for your many contributions made to the school in past years and your loyal spirit which we could not do without.

We hope that in future years, when we return to these hallowed halls as graduates of Manual High School, we too, will possess a feeling of accomplishment and lend a helping hand as readily as you do. Though years separate many of us, we are tied together by our common love for Manual.

Artist's Sanctuary

Booster Reporter Visits Marie Goth

By Tim Mills

"Oh, I remember my high school days at Manual very well," said Miss Marie Goth, nationally known portrait painter and a 1906 graduate of Manual. I interviewed Miss Goth in her studio-home in Nashville, Indiana, when I was visiting a mutual friend who lives near her home.

Manual is fortunate to have one of Miss Goth's portraits—the large painting of Mr. E. H. Kemper McComb principal for 32 years—which hangs in the Conference Room.

"Every Christmas from when I was just a little thing until I was able to buy my own art materials, I wanted a box of watercolors; nothing else, just watercolors," she recalled. "I got them along with a stocking full of nuts and oranges and would spend Saturdays copying cartoons from an old fairy-tale book my grandmother gave me. When I didn't get the drawings copied just the way they were, I'd cry, until they were exactly right. I was just nuts on this art business!"

Eyes Twinkled

As she went on to tell of her love for art, her large, luminous brown eyes twinkled and her smile charmed me.

The exposed beams in the ceiling and the coal stove in the kitchen gave the two-room cabin an air of antiquity. An old clock ticked steadily away on the mantle over the fireplace and seemed to grow louder as our conversation died away.

The sudden chirping of a bird brought forth, "That's Birdie-Baby! Sweet Birdie-Baby, come and talk for our guest." The parakeet's blue color matched perfectly the dress Miss Goth was wearing.

She turned and asked, "Would you like some tea?" In a moment we were at the kitchen table talking over tea and cookies. I asked her if she had always wanted to be an artist or had she tried other things.

"I always wanted to be a painter. I was an assistant art teacher at Manual for three years—started at $25 a month. It was quite a while before I could save enough money to go to New York to study. It took ten years of study in New York before I could earn any money painting. I owe everything to so many people. I don't think anyone ever succeeds on his own efforts alone."

When asked for her opinion of modern art, she responded with an ear-to-ear grin, without hesitation, "I think the less said the better!"

I asked Miss Goth about her philosophy of life. "My only philosophy is that God is the giver of all good," she explained. "Religion is very personal to me. I believe God gave us talent to use for His glory. People aren't to be labeled as belonging to this religion or as belonging to that religion, but as individuals trying to do what is right. Religion isn't to be loosely talked about; it is to be practiced. We are all striving for the same thing, aren't we?"

Brown County, Fascinating

"Come, I'll show you the garden," she said, as we finished our tea. She grabbed up a sweater, and we stepped outside among the birds and the late-blooming flowers. "Brown County has kind of a fascination about it in the fall. It's beautiful all year 'round, but the fall is when it really puts on a show for everyone."

It was indeed fall! A golden leaf sailed from the top of a hedge tree and fell at the base of a sundial at the end of the garden path. The breeze shifted and a jay lit on the bird bath. I knew that I would never forget that autumn day in Brown County.

Our 'First Lady'

Alumni Honor 'Dame Manual'

By Nancy Bentz

The Manual Alumni Association has chosen for the "Alumna of the Year" a woman who is today a personification of the Redskin ideal. Manual's "First Lady," Mrs. Mary J. Spiegel, left quite a mark on Manual.

A graduate of the 1910 class, she attended the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music for two years and later worked as a secretary at Eli Lilly Co. She came home to Manual as secretary to Principal Milo H. Stuart in 1915, and turned out to be a valuable asset, remaining through 47 years as "right hand man" to five principals. She has often been dubbed "Dame Manual."

Mrs. Spiegel Served Faithfully

Mrs. Spiegel served Manual faithfully and well as a career woman, civic-minded in all dealings and interested in each student's welfare.

She is an ex-officio member of the publications staff and a staunch supporter of the Music Department. She is an honorary member of Masoma as well as of Roines Club. She has served in many other capacities in other groups, too numerous to mention here.

Mrs. Spiegel is remembered for many fine qualities by people who have known her well and long.

Principal C. Edgar Stahl remembers Mrs. Spiegel for "her complete loyalty to Manual and her job, and her willingness to do anything for anyone connected with Manual."

"Manual was her life," he continued. "Mrs. Spiegel was one of the first here in the morning and the last to leave at night."

Alumni Association Outstanding

"Our Alumni Association is outstanding in the country, largely because of the hard work and support of Mrs. Spiegel," said Mr. Stahl.

Mrs. Coral Black, who knew Mrs. Spiegel well remarked about her very friendly manner. "Every teacher could go to her and she would listen, sympathize, and try to help. She was a good listener and could keep still about what she knew."

"There was a big hole in the office

Redskin Exclusive

Literary Club, For Grads Only

Manual is unique among high schools in the unusual loyalty of her alumni, and unique with Manual grads is an ex-Redskin only literary club.

Late in 1903, Miss Alice Ballard, a Manual graduate of 1902, suggested to Miss Beatrice Foy the organization of a study club whose members should be graduates of Manual Training High School. Miss Foy, English teacher with outstanding personality, was keenly interested in the idea. Under her guidance and leadership, the Saturday Afternoon Literary Club was organized.

Membership was limited to 30 and members were all Manual grads. New members were enlisted from succeeding classes over the years, and this has given to the membership a wide range in age which has added unusual interest to the club, explains Mrs. T. M. Weesner, a member.

Many times the membership has been full, and there has been a waiting list. There is also a list of corresponding or associate members, ones who have become inactive or moved from the city. An honorary list contains the names of Miss Gertrude Emmerich, the late Mr. E. H. Kemper McComb, and Mrs. E. H. Kemper McComb.

Club Meets Monthly

The Saturday Afternoon Literary Club meets on the first Saturday of each month, except January, from September to June, in the Hawthorne Room. Attendance at meetings averages between 22 and 25 members.

The club is purely a Manual High School product. Its motto — Modesty, Truth, Honor, and Sincerity — is suggested by the initials of the school name, when she left. She was the heart of the school for 47 years. She is about as near to being indispensable as anyone I've ever known," commented Mrs. Black. "Everyone misses her so much because she was more than a secretary—a friend to everyone."

"If you needed to know anything about the school, you went to her and she knew it," explained Mrs. Black. "She took on much of the work of the Alumni Association when Principal McComb left."

Warm-hearted

"I found her to be a very warm-hearted woman with a motherly instinct," said Mr. Harold Boese, "and all new teachers were placed under her wing."

He continued, "When you wanted to know where some legal papers were or where the Santa Claus outfit was, you asked Mrs. Spiegel."

"She was a very gracious hostess and a lot of fun to visit," he added.

Mrs. Betty Baker, librarian and Manual graduate, remembers from her high school days that Mrs. Spiegel was very friendly and helpful. "As secretary, she was most appreciative of my coming to Manual to substitute teach, and very helpful in getting me my permanent job here. She got me started back here at Manual."

Remembers Students

Mr. Charles Monroe remarked, "She was unusually friendly, well organized, and hard working. The amazing thing about Mrs. Spiegel is that she remembered me from when I was a student at Manual. She takes a great personal interest in students."

Miss Charlotte Hafer, who replaced Mrs. Spiegel as Mr. Stahl's secretary, said "she was a dedicated woman whose life was here at Manual. She loved working with all the people in the Manual community."

"When I was a student here she gave me much help, and later helped me in finding my job."

Mrs. Spiegel, who well deserves her "Dame Manual," is respected and loved by all who know her. She is an inspiration to all who come in contact with her, a perfect "Alumna of the Year."

and was given the club by Mr. Charles E. Emmerich, whose support and encouragement was never failing. The chrysanthemum is the club's flower and yellow and brown are its colors.

The programs through the years have been varied: early English history, novels and poems, the religions of the world, and art and the history of art. Until 1913, Miss Foy was responsible for the line of study followed. "Her withdrawal from active work was a severe loss, but the memory of her loyalty and spirit lives on with the club," reports Mrs. Weesner.

Members Find Loyalty

To those fortunate enough to have been members almost from the beginning, the association has been deeply loyal, with a kindness of spirit not often found in so large an organization, Mrs. Weesner continued.

The Saturday Afternoon Literary Club welcomes new members from among younger graduates of Manual. The next meeting on March 7 will feature a study of the novel, The Golden Age of Quakerdom, by Stewart H. Holbrook. Runaway to Heaven, by Joanna Johnston, will be discussed on April 4. A discussion of the merits of "Fiction Versus Non-fiction" will take place on May 2.

On June 6, their Sixtieth Anniversary party will be a tea in the Holcomb Garden House. Members of the Program Committee are Mrs. Alfred Warner, Mrs. Lillian Bohnstadt, and Mrs. Weesner.

At present, there are vacancies, and new members would be welcome. Younger graduates would have much to give that would be helpful to the club, and certainly the Saturday Afternoon Literary Club would reciprocate.

Redmen's Shooting Cools In Howe, Seccina Tilts

Manual dropped two encounters over the weekend, as the team's shooting eye lost a little lustre. Seccina won a 76-61 tilt after Howe triumphed, 74-57.

In each game, the Redskins' power collapsed in the third period after a close first half. The Redmen could muster only five third-period points against Howe and fell behind too far to catch up. Against Seccina, the problem was defense. The Crusaders chalked up 22 points in the third period and coasted home with a 15-point advantage.

Denzil Throckmorton led the scoring in each game with 14 markers. Bill Jones shot 12 points in the Howe contest, and Mike Hargraves made 12 in the Seccina game.

Manual was working on a three-game winning string and missed the chance for having a winning season. With one game left, with Southport, the Redmen stand 8-10 on the year.

Soon the sectional competition starts, with the Redskins playing as usual at Southport. Coach "Dee" Compton has settled on a lineup of Mike Hargraves, Bill Jones, Charles Wood, Denzil Throckmorton, and Larry Smith. They can play good pattern ball and should give a good showing in the Sectional.

Reserves Score Weekend Wins

Coach Woody McBride's Reserve basketball team won both its weekend tilts. The B-team defeated Howe by a 53-49 score as Karlis Steinmanis led all Manual scorers with 17 points. Perry Cobb scored twelve, Bill Taylor six, Bob Percifield and Mike McCray contributed five each, and Ron McBride scored four.

In Saturday night's roundball action, the Reserves scalped Seccina's Crusaders by a 53-33 score. Karlis Steinmanis again led the Manual assault with 15 points and Bob Percifield scored 11.

Scoutin' the Skins

'Mo' Clears Oval For Tramping Feet 'Dee' Blows Candles

Any time now, Mr. Moriarty is going to say "shovel off the snow" from the cinder track and the 1964 Track season will be on. Each Spring around the first of March, "Mo" digs down into the old equipment bag, and begins the ritual of passing out the gear. Before long, the cindermen will be out in the fresh air shaking the frost off the oval with the stomp of bouncing feet. The guys practice in any and every kind of weather. It doesn't matter if it's raining, hailing, or snowing—the "Mo-men" will be out getting their daily exercise.

The last couple of years, the Track squad has been tremendous. "Mo" can count the number of defeats suffered during the last three years on one hand. In 1963, the only defeat was a narrow loss to Howe. Last spring was a really good season. Not only did the Tracksters bring home the long tally of wins, but there were some real outstanding individual performers. Roger Wathen and Dave Morris each had such great seasons that the squad named them dual Most-Valuable-Players. Morris won Sectional titles in both the 100 and 220 yard dashes and anchored the half-mile relay team. Roger set records in the broad jump and 440 as well as contributing to the mile relay quartet.

It's only a couple of weeks away. . . .

Coach Dee Compton is another year younger. The basketball guys made note of this when they gave the coach a birthday party last week after the Seccina tilt. The party was at the coach's house and was complete with birthday cake and all. Wonder if he blew all the candles out with one puff?

Wear a Derby To The SECTIONAL

Frosh Downed By Perry, Howe

The Freshman basketball team lost both games in last week's hardcourt action. Perry Central led all the way to defeat the Frosh by a 57-45 score. Bill Norris led all Manual scorers with 15 points. Steve Snoddy had twelve, Jerry Humphrey had eight, and Louis Meo contributed six.

Howe's Hornets won by a 42-31 score when Manual's second half drive failed. Bill Norris again led Manual scorers with ten points, Steve Snoddy had seven, Louis Meo had five, and Jerry Humphrey and Mike Longere scored four.

The Freshman record is now eight wins and ten losses.

Gadient Loses On Decisions

Lee Gadient lost a heart-breaker match to Fred Happ of Evansville Mater Dei in an overtime on a "referee's decision" at the Bloomington Regional and brought Manual's '63-'64 wrestling season to a close last Saturday night.

In the afternoon Lee tallied 9 points for Manual after pinning Jack Phillips of Brazil in four minutes and thirty-nine seconds, in the semi-finals of the Regional. Lee, besides being last year's Regional Champ in the 145 lb. division, is also twice a Sectional Champ, winning the last two years in a row.

Old Rivals Clash In Season Finale

Coach "Dee" Compton's rompin' Redskins take to the warpath tonight as they travel to Southport for the last game of the season.

The Cardinals have downed the Redmen every year since 1961. Last year the Redbirds scalped the Redskins twice. The Cardinals have won the Sectional and County tourneys for the last two years, also. This year, however, Southport was cut down early in the County Tourney, and Warren Central took home the prize. This year Washington, city champs, will be at Southport for the Sectional. Howe, who has already downed the Redbirds, and Wood will be looking for Sectional crowns, also.

The Cardinals own an 8-11 record at this point. Ben Davis, who nipped Manual by only five, clobbered Southport 101-75. Warren Central smacked the Redbirds 84-46, while the Redmen downed Warren by two. Columbus romped over Southport by 48 points, 106-58, earlier this season.

Southport's big loss was all State guard Louis Dampier, now averaging more than 20 points a game on the freshman team at the University of Kentucky. The Cardinals have seven returning lettermen from last year's 19-9 team. Bob Simpson is the county's leading scorer with a 20-plus average. Simpson, a 6-foot forward, scored 383 points last year. Jerry Duhammel, Ron Hiereman, and Don Hillenburg all return from seeing action last year. Among the list of letter-winners is Paul Krahne, 6-foot, 2½-inch junior, who managed to score twelve points during 28 games; and Phil Wright, 5-10 junior, who totaled 21. Tom Masters, a transfer from Pike, now has moved to Lebanon. Masters, 6-4 and 217 pounds, was Southport's biggest man.

Manual sports an 8-10 record going into tonight's game.

Masoma, Roines Proud of History Celebrate 50th Anniversaries

Observing their 50th Anniversary this year, both the Masomas and the Roines are looking forward to another 50 years of service to the school.

Masoma was started in 1914 by Miss Ida M. Rhem as a service organization for senior girls. Masoma is now sponsored by Mrs. Betty Baker.

Roines, also begun in 1914, started for the purpose of trying to stimulate athletic programs between high schools. This group was organized by Mr. Ted Krull and Mr. Ed Gardner. Later Miss Arda Knox became sponsor when she went to bat for continuance of the club as a school service group. The name is merely "senior" spelled backwards. Mr. Charles Monroe, a 1953 Roines, now sponsors the club.

Juniors May Qualify

Any second semester junior boy or girl with a "B" (6.0) average, 35 honor points, and who has never had an "F" final may apply at the announced time for Roines or Masoma respectively.

Masomas and Roines sponsor the Freshman Mixer and assist freshman home rooms on the first day.

Masomas also serve at athletic banquets and the Alumni Birthday Celebration, monitor tests, and do other services requested of them.

Roines are responsible for the outside bulletin board, and the Christmas wreath each year and take care of checking wraps at the Alumni Celebration.

"Belonging to Roines makes the boys feel part of something worthwhile," stated Mr. Monroe. "It's great watching these boys mature into decent young men."

Masomas

Y-Teens Plan March Nut Sale

The Y-Teens have just completed drawing up their constitution. The club is planning a Nut Sale, sponsored by the YMCA, in March. Most of the 22 members were active in Y-Teens in grade school. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Rosemarie Gilliam.

Joe O'Brien, Doug Booth, Steve Kukler, Mr. Wayne Dunbar, and Mr. Noble Poole attended a dinner in honor of Thomas Edison's birthday, Feb. 12, at the Indianapolis Power and Light Company. Robert Kryter a consultant engineer who is a retired Esterliner-Angus Company executive, told the group that besides chemistry, physics, and mathematics, English is important so that scientists will be able to communicate and understand the works of others.

Twenty-two pupils in the Introduction to Engineering class were excused from classes Wednesday, Feb. 12, for a field trip to International Harvester. The pupils participating in the trip were Ora Brier, Richard Brown, John Clark, Joseph Conniff, David Ellis, Norman Fuchs, Dick Goss, Bob Humes, Lynn Kinkade, Charles Lambuth, John Lyzott, George Marlow, Danny Maynard, Walton Mosley, Dennis Raesner, Dan Rauch, Paul Stroud, Benjamin Swigert, James Taylor, Denzil Throckmorton, Don Townsend, and Gene Voelkel.

Library Displays New Features To Better Serve Manual Pupils

"Manual's new library is now in full operation for the benefit of the student body and faculty," stated Miss Helen Negley, librarian. Newly opened three months ago, the weekly circulation of books is about 800. More than 18,000 books can be found on the shelves.

With a seating capacity of 200, the new library has been arranged for easier access to the reading materials. The Reader's Guide table, an informal reading circle, individual study desks, the glass-enclosed office, the workroom, and the enlarged conference section of the library are new features of the library. The old library is now a study hall.

Helping to keep the books and magazines correctly arranged are 56 library assistants. These girls are chosen on the basis of their scholastic standing in their class and their participation in extra-curricular activities.

Various duties of the assistants are checking books in and out, taking attendance, shelving returned books, and helping students to find particular books.

Glee Club Has 'Hart' For Some Thirty Years

Manual's Glee Club was a part of the school away back in 1900. Now, 64 years later, it is playing a bigger role in Manual's Music Department than ever, and the girls will sing tomorrow for the Alumni.

"I have a group of girls that really makes me proud," said Miss Freda Hart, who has been with the Glee Club more than thirty years. "Before this semester is over the girls will have to do six more performances."

Six Performances

The performances are the Band and Glee Club Concert, the Cherry Tree Hop, the Alumni Dinner, May Music Festival, the Honors Day program, and a dinner for the Indiana Central Campers Association. New robes are expected Feb. 20 so girls will have them to wear for all of the occasions.

Alice Bone, the vice-president, describes the Glee Club as "one big family." Jennifer Graham, a new member this semester says, "I think it's wonderful because I like to sing."

Sixty-three More

The other 63 members are Janice Angerer, Marilyn Bailey, Betty Barkhau, Deborah Barkhau, Suzanne Barnes, Janette Baron, Charlene Bartram, Bonnie Birt, Dietra Boles, Linda Borro, Nita reeden, Robin Cain, Phyllis Callaway, Anita Cook, Doris Craven, Martha Dexter, Pat Freeman, Brenda Gooden, Connie Goss, Carol Green, Virginia Guilfoil, Judy Hancock, Linda Harkness, and Susy Hattabough.
