

DePaul Transfer Courvoisier McCauley To Join Sycamore Basketball

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. – ISU men's basketball Head Coach Josh Schertz has added Courvoisier McCauley (Pronounced Core-voss-ee-aye) to his 2022-23 roster. McCauley will join the Sycamores as a graduate student with one year of eligibility remaining.

"It's obviously a unique situation to be able to add a player that you recruited and have already coached for two years," Schertz said. "Courvoisier checks a lot of boxes for us. He is a high-level efficient scorer along with being as good of a closer as I've ever coached, which is an area we had to address this spring. His familiarity and previous success in our system should make for a smooth transition and an immediate impact."

McCauley, a 6-5 guard from Indianapolis, Indiana, helped BIG EAST member DePaul to 15 wins last season. He played in 29 games, starting two for the Blue Demons with a stat line of 5.7 points, 2.4 rebounds, 0.7 assists and 0.6 steals per game. McCauley averaged 16.9 minutes per game, shooting 43.6 percent overall and 32.4 percent from three-point range (24 three-pointers made). He led the team with a 2.3 assist-to-turnover ratio (21 assists/9 turnovers).

McCauley scored in double-figures in seven games with the Blue Demons, posting a season-high 21 points during a game at nationally-ranked Xavier. During a six-game stretch of BIG EAST play late in the year, the guard scored in double-figures in five games. He recorded a double-double with 13 points and a season-high 11 rebounds at Seton Hall later in the season.

The veteran guard comes to ISU familiar with Schertz and his system after spending his first two years at Lincoln Memorial (2018-20). During his time with the Railsplitters, McCauley Ranked among the nation's top players as he earned NABC Division II All-American honors and was on the Bevo Francis Top 25 Watch List for the national player of the year. Other honors following the sophomore campaign included Division II Bulletin All-American First Team, NABC Division II All-Southeast District First Team, D2CCA Southeast All-Region First Team, South Atlantic Conference Player of the Year, All-South Atlantic Conference First Team and South Atlantic Conference All-Tournament Team.

He helped lead the Railsplitters to a 32-1 record during his last season at LMU and a perfect 22-0 record in the South Atlantic Conference. McCauley averaged 20 points and 6.3 rebounds while shooting .436 (103-236) from three-point range and .497 (236-475) overall from the field at LMU his sophomore season. He was named to the South Atlantic Conference All-Freshman Team after averaging 9.8 points per game in 20.4 minutes per game after playing in 29 games, starting seven.

McCauley played at Manual High School where he averaged 26.8 points during his senior season before playing his prep basketball at Redemption Christian Academy in New York.

McCauley is the second transfer signing with the ISU Basketball program for 2022-23 along with Jayson Kent of Bradley.

For the latest information on Sycamore Basketball, be sure to visit GoSycamores.com. You can also find the team on social media, including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and YouTube.